Ch. M. Perre. Ayez mes
ufs remembrances - Prenez bonnes vos bouteilles - Je m' propte pour faire papier le paquet & inclus au
tr. framelle - a que
je vous pris de souhaiter ben le faire avec
tout aper et j'espere

Enfin - nous avons
un Ministre! & je
dis - tout a fait de
notre avis = framelle
en l'idee!

Pour les affaires nationales & d'administration - comme distinquiés des intérêts privés de la Partie, ou en n'est plus visible
que ce changement per-
-petuel que l'on a eu
en France ces derniers
années & pourtant
sans la monarchie &
par la cause de l'âge
je ne sais si ces
craintes ne sont pas
servies d'espèce de

fairent - et c. d. par la les fureurs de parti chaffer Si je parle le direc'est comme le son de
de sucre dans la ma-chinerie à papier - Ces remarques bien - qu'elles chaque fois, il se forme ~~une~~ minutes - & puis les esprits les plus ardens se tranquilliseront par le manège de
piqueant d'avoir rem-
- pété une vertue

Dear Mr. R. By and
to Hotel Name - the new newspaper published every hour, Thursday - Miss & Satys. I shall be there till evening
Tuesday - I will go
round also and my speech in Grand Room
and Mr. Malcolm Phillips 39 Jordan Street
has the torture -
His somewhat obscure that Dr. Price in his famed short was

Bull, should never have even hinted that I had been reading about me in Feb in the N.Y. Journals - with their resolutions moving on the whole subject -
I suppose he was not aware that I had unrefined
to himself in my speech perhaps you will send him a copy of
as well as to Phillips.
If the Globe mentions the matter, it should also refer to the Times Article so cut as very begin

The sword of Cromwell Breaker of Iron -
was a sword & he
- was a full spirit
in the cause above
recounted.

It would be nullify
you to a sword when
in the place. That Sir.
P. Wilmet is probably a volume of my Books
as chief concern'd
with Law Reform. He is a pretty full writer of it in the last
law my self know.

Yours very
